My Personal Earnings, after using this method for a few weeks:

For Support:

If you need support/help regarding this method then PM me, do not post on the sales thread if you need support, learn the difference between “support” and “sales thread”, I am very strict about this and not want anyone to create drama, if anyone does then I have rights to cut off him from my support list. This restriction is just to prevent newbies acting immaturely, thanks for understanding. Simply contact me if you need support I will try my best to help you.

For Refunds:

There are No refunds unless you have actually tried the method for a month (30 days), working at least 30-60 minutes every day but not made any money.

Well it's impossible not to make money from my method because its fail-proof and anyone can have success using it and because of its simplicity and you not need to be creative to use it.

Start using my method, if you use it and not made money then PM me with a VALID reason why you not made money, if it's actually a "Valid" reason then I will happily refund you, please do not come up with lame excuses while asking for refund. I have been forced to adopt this restriction to prevent fraudulent refunds.

Thinking Outside the Box:

If you want success then you not only have to copy and paste what exactly I do but also have to "twist" my ideas to create your own.

What I mean is that you not have to be limited to my eBook selling idea; you can sell other things on that marketplace that you get online for free.

An example is “web scripts” you can find shitload of web scripts on sites like:

<http://www.hotscripts.com>

<https://www.phpjammers.com/free-php-scripts.php>

Other things that you can sell are cracked programs, codes, etc. Think out of the box and twist my method to make your own, you will succeed, guaranteed!

Closing Words:

Thanks for reading, I have worked REALLY HARD to make this eBook customer oriented and to impress my customers, and I really hope that you like it.

If you start making money with my method then please let me know, hearing success stories has always given me an amazing feeling.
