Hi there and Thanks for buying my ebook.

This method involves answering questions in a website called

<http://studentoffortune.com>

First things first, register an account there, you can update your profile details, but it's not necessary. Adding a nice profile picture will add to your reputation. Don't go for chicks when choosing a profile, this is a student website, not Facebook, so a geek will do wonders than a blonde. Now choose "Search Recent Questions" from the left menu.

Here you will have the list of recent questions to be answered. You can start off answering the low value questions in the range of $0.25 to $5.00 to get a grip of the site and then move on to the higher ones. Always try to answer the newly posted unanswered questions, you can choose it from the menu above the list of questions.

Download the attachments the member has provided and Choose the "Submit Tutorial" button.

Read the attached documents or the Questions carefully and search for them in google, if you can find an answer to the question, its well and good. You can post that answer to the question.

Else even if you are not able to find an answer, you can always give out relevant tutorials or help files which will help the member to solve the question by himself/herself.

This is entirely accepted by the terms and conditions of the website, as they tell you to not entirely give out the answers to the questions but to help them find the Answer by themselves. That's the site's "Academic Honesty Policy" and you should abide by that. Having said that, there are a lot of members who post junk answers and get away with it.

Please don't scam the members by giving irrelevant junk answers, which will be total fraud. Instead help them to find answers by giving them the required help files and documents.

For example:

If you want a solution for SR 218F from phoenix college, do a search and give them the lecture notes, assignment solutions and other course material which will help them to find the answer on their own.

Your search query in google should look like:
filetype:pdf "SR218F phoenix"

Your search query in google should look like:
filetype:pdf "SR218F phoenix"

Try different combinations, there are millions of college websites out there which have almost all solutions to school and college assignments.

Once your answer is live, then just wait for the buyer to show up. If they ask you any questions about your answer through instant messages, just ask them to buy your answer, don't give out any details about the answer you have posted.

Creating a Profile with Reputation:

For higher rated questions, the buyers always choose answers from members who have a rating of A+ or B+. Now you start off with a “No Rating” reputation and need to get a rating to make these members buy your high valued answers.

You can do that by the following method:

1. Create a Duplicate Account (Acct B) and ask a simple math question valued at $0.25.
2. Now answer the question from your first account (Acct A) for which you want to build reputation.
3. Buy the answer from Acct A and give a positive A rating.

Adding Funds:

You should have some funds in your Acct B before you can ask a question. You can add funds into your account in two ways:

1. Add some dollars using your PayPal balance
2. Answer a simple question from Acct B and accumulate some cash.

Payments:

Once you have accumulated some dollars in your account, you can withdraw it to your PayPal account. Don't worry; you can always change your email address in your profile and route it to different PayPal addresses if you want.

Bonus Section:

Creating PDF Files for FREE:

You can get a free PDF creator from PDF995.

<http://www.pdf995.com/download.html>

Download both the Free Converter and PDF995 printer driver.

Once you have installed PDF995, you can print your word and WordPad files directly to your PDF995 printer and create pdf files.

Searching Lecture notes, Course materials:

Google is your best bet, Just in case you need to search for course materials, there is something called as the Open Course Ware or OCW. Almost all major universities have it in their websites. OCW contain lecture notes, study notes, completed assignments, project papers, white papers, research papers, complete course materials etc. They are the Open source of Course materials for colleges and universities. OCW is a reference library for students to compare notes and learn stuff by themselves. The materials there are mostly pdf's and powerpoints which we can use directly as our answers, but please make sure you change the file names before submitting. The major OCW site which came first and which I used and still use at times is MIT

<http://ocw.mit.edu>

There are also separate search engines just to search these materials.

<http://www.ocwsearch.com/>

You can get the list of OCW websites of major universities from wiki

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/OpenCourseWare>

So there you go, your source to find answers (or answers which are close to the question) the easy way.

$567.21 a DAY CPA METHOD

Thanks for purchasing my $567.21 a DAY CPA METHOD and I should say this method really works.

I am sure that after reading my report you will be making at least $500 a day spending only 2-3 hours of your time.

Yes my method works for only those who take action and not sitting around and waiting for money to roll in.

If you are ready – let's get started.

What is CPA Marketing?

CPA is an acronym for cost-per-action and represents an online advertising payment model in which payment are based only on qualifying actions such as sales, registrations, leads, downloads, form submissions.

This is quite an important section so please pay attention. This is where people tend to get confused and ask a lot of questions.

CPA Affiliate Marketing companies are those huge millionaire marketing companies which you guys are going to join. These companies act as the middle man and in turn pay you to generate leads for their clients. There are lots of CPA affiliate marketing companies and personally I am a member of several networks just in case one day I wake up and find myself banned for no apparent reason.

So it is best you spread your wings and join right now. Here is the one I highly recommend:

www.coprospers.com

How to Get Accepted Into CPA Networks?

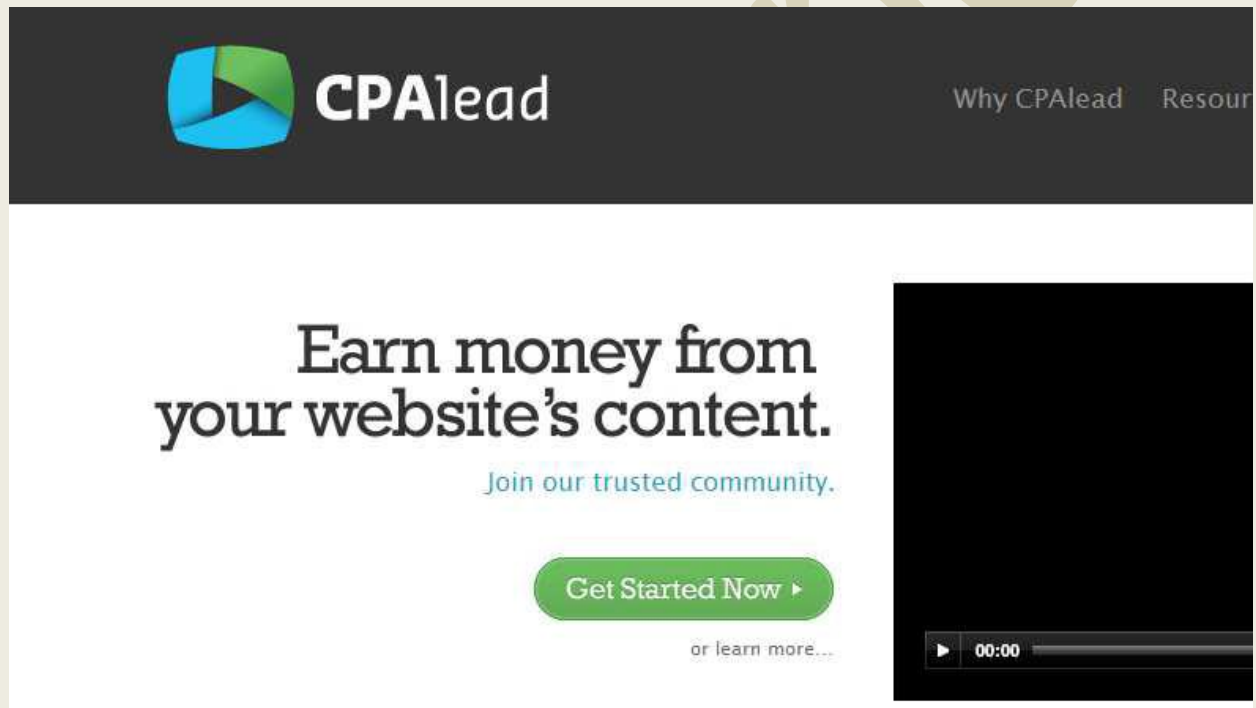

If you have your own website it will help you to make money from CPAs.

Set up a cool domain and order a web hosting and of course get yourself a real business email associated with your domain.

It should look like this one: admin@yourwebsite.com

Usually you will get approved very quickly, but sometimes you will be called upon registration.

For instance you will get automatically accepted to www.cpalead.com

You can click GET STARTED NOW and complete the sign-up process.

But if you apply for example for www.coprospers.com be ready that the reviewer will ask you these two questions:

- How do you promote offers?
- What type of offers are you interested in?

You can write something like:

Dear Affiliate Manager,

I have been marketing with cpa for years and I have my own website. I use PPC marketing and free forum postings to drive traffic to my website where I place your offers. I use lots of other traffic sources and usually all offers are converting well with them...

More often it is enough to get accepted with any cpa networks. If you use other whitehat methods mention them as well to get more chances to get accepted.

How to choose your first cpa offer right

There is a great deal of CPA offers you can choose. I would recommend selecting LEAD cpa offers. It means the visitor needs to fill in his email address and/or name and you will get your commission.

Payouts are normally much higher for longer forms.

This a typical dating offer, where you can make $3.15 if the visitor fills in some information.

I would recommend selecting offers which are really popular at the moment like thos one. The offer can be incentivized, so you can promote it using such great methods of promotion: social media marketing, newsletter, email promos etc.

Okay, after years of stealthing around I've now powered down and disengaged th meant to debut here with an early review of the IM movie (thanks to some advan have), but blew that right out the airlock weeks ago.

But in one word: AWESOME.

Can't wait for the directors cut DVD.

Method #2 (Buzz Method)

You can create a CPA Poll Page where you can ask people to take part in the poll to find out what they think.

This method works extremely well, because people like to take part in polls and say their opinion.

First we need to go to www.buzz.yahoo.com and find out what is hot at the moment.

I found that "Lady Gaga Confirms She Was to Open for Michael Jackson" is hot at the moment.

Many people are interested in this hot topic and we can make lots of buzz to rake in our commissions as well.

You can start making first steps.

Create your first blog post on a free server like www.blogger.com and upload some videos of Lady Gaga and write some posts about Lady Gaga.

Your next step is to place a content unlocker from cpalead.com on your page, so people can take part in the survey to watch the video.

I often use this method by promoting free materials or hot news and videos.

So the main question here is how to drive traffic to your cpalead.com offer?!

The answer is simple: "Go to the place where people are discussing Lady Gaga's clothes, music, style etc."

I have never known there are so many forums about Lady Gaga like this one:

<http://www.buzzjack.com/forums/Lady-GaGa-Forum-f154.html>

8 Pages ▾ 1 2 3 > >>
Lady GaGa Forum

	 Poll: What should be the 4th single off 'The Fame Monster'? 5 songs to choose from...	19	Chriss S	136
	The Monster Ball Tour 1 2 3 > 6 EXTRA UK DATES ADDED	111	Aidan Gleek	3,873

So you can start your Hot THREAD with the thread headline "Lady Gaga Confirms She Was to Open for Michael Jackson" with the signature linked with your cpa offer and you will be amazed how many people will take part in the survey to see HOT news about Lady Gaga.

Method #3

Many people like to download FREE materials or FREE videos, scripts, software etc.
There are also lots of people that like to have FREE iPod Tunes as well.

There are lots of keyword combinations for the keyword: free ipod codes, free itunes, free itunes download etc.

For some keywords there are not so many competition and it will be much easier to rank on the first page in Google.

We can create another blog on www.blogger.com and fill it with posts, but include some keywords that will help people to find our blog much faster and entice them to fill the cpa offer.

You can use this concept with other "FREE" keywords.

FREE MOVIE DOWNLOADS
FREE ADWORDS COUPONS
FREE DVD MOVIES

The market here is huge and as I said people like FREE STUFF.
I searched some time ago for FREE ADWORDS COUPONS and had to fill in the form to get it. It means if it works with me – it would also work for sure with other people.

Method #4

I guess you watched "Twilight". This movie gained worldwide millions of fans. It was really a huge success and sparked a whole range of merchandise everything from Twilight birthday cake toppings to Twilight tshirts.

The movie was a HOT TREND and there are millions of teen girls logging
on searching for anything related to Twilight and in particular Edward Cullen.

98,300,000 backlinks for twilight!

The savvy super affiliates always use this time to rake in good money and explode their CPA earnings using the simple method that I am going to show you right now.

Our first step is to identify a hot trend and compile a massive list of hidden cheap keywords related to this HOT EVENT.

Understand the demographic makeup of the traffic attracted to our event and select a CPA Offer suited to this demographic that offers some rewards and is easy to fill in.

We can then offer a poll and creat attention using PPC, moreover we will buy cheap traffic and optimize our campaign.

Next day we will repeat our steps to rake in more cpa cash. Let's get our keyword list together.

 HOW TO CHOOSE A HOT (TREND) CPA OFFER *****

You need to choose a hot cpa offer very carefully this time. Age, interests, gender, country of origin and so on all matter when it comes to matching the right kind of offer with the right person. If you get this wrong your conversion rates will bomb

A 40 year old woman, for example, searching for the latest diet fad (Acai Berry comes to mind) will be enticed by a weight related offer rather than the chance to win a free TV! The free TV will appeal to a gamer looking for reviews of the latest Xbox release.

Everybody likes to get free stuff but the more the free gift matches the profile of your visitor the more success you will have with conversions. This method works a bit differently as a FORUM METHOD. Here you need to understand what people need most.

Now let's take a closer look at what is popular right now.
Sex and The City 2 is a hot trend right now.

Let's go to www.quantcast.com and type sexandthecitymovie.com because this website has around 35,000.00 visitors a month and we can understand thus the demographic of our visitors.

Quantcast has shown that the SEX and THE CITY 2 is really hot at the moment, but of course to choose a right traffic we need more information.

We have also some statistical data to work with.

63% of the traffic is FEMALE TRAFFIC and 40% of the traffic is aged between 18-34 years.

So we have all information to start profitable cpa campaigns and rake in good cpa cash.

Searching through some CPA Networks I have chosen maxbounty cpa offers.

The CPA offer looks like it will work well perfectly with all kinds of HOT MOVIES related traffic.

The offer pays $1.15 per lead, so it is a quite good sum of money. It has a one field to fill in and has a good call-to-action button, so we can work with this offer.

Now it's high time we created a landing page that converts and of course we need to start our campaign when the major traffic comes in. It happens just before or just after the movie release.

What you have to do is to create a topical poll – something that requires a clicking action.

Your page is going to ask a relevant question. Something like:
WHO IS THE SEXIEST – MIRANDA or CHARLOTTE?
IRON MAN 2 or SEX & THE CITY 2

After the visitor takes part in the poll he or she will be redirected to your page with a PRIZE (maxbounty cpa offer)

Every time you have a new offer to promote you can change your landing page and rake in good cpa cash.

But the landing page needs to have some similar elements. You need to make people vote for their favourite movies or favourite actors etc. and people should always have two choices.

“IRON MAN 2” or “SEX AND THE CITY 2”
CLICK ON THE PICTURE TO VOTE

When you create your landing page or change some elements of the page to get it ready for a new wave of traffic – keep in mind your target audience.

Ask yourself what you need to do people take action and submit their emails. Just try find out what excites people.

Create a good design with appeal to them.

KEY ELEMENTS

- TOPIC TO VOTE (people can even choose between two topics and say if they like this or that film) Fans always like to leave their votes and tell their opinion about the film.
- You can even help fans to identify themselves with the actor. Many fans like ROBERT DOWNEY Jr. and of course females like SARAH JESSICA PARKER in the "SEX & The City 2" Just place a photo of an actor in the center of the page to evoke an emotional response
- Place a very clear visual stimulus on the page, so the visitor can see clearly YES and NO buttons or/and IMAGES. Eyes of the visitor should see very clearly these points of action. Visual stimulus helps to increase conversion rate.

- You can even include some text/information about movie(s) This information will help you to increase your relevance in Google and if you are the first to promote it before the release of the movie – it will send your CPC through the roof, but it must be readable and do not hide other elements of the page.

You can be creative as you like with your landing page, but do not forget to add KEY ELEMENTS: arrows, call-to-action button, email submit, offering a gift card etc.

THE VISITOR HAS TO CHOOSE BETWEEN MOVIES, CHARACTERS etc. and of course VOTE for a FAVOURITE MOVIE OR A CHARACTER etc. Another good advice is to add rate from 1 to 10 option as a call to action. Each number on the scale will lead to your cpa offer.

Here's an example of a popular cartoons (june 2010) and the page has a very good design and some of key elements.

Just experiment with different variations for different audiences, do split tests and always aim to maximize your conversions. It happens that you are the only advertiser before the movie is being released to offer such a great landing page with a poll inside.

Yes you can't be the only one who offers a cpa offer page, but this is a trick – your landing page is the key to success!

PPC Campaign

After you have created your landing page, chosen your keywords and a cpa offer – your next step is to write relevant ads and receive an insane amount of traffic to your landing page.

Toy Story 3 sucks?/Read before watching
Before You Watch Toy Story 3

Make Sure Read This First!

We have here a killer headline which grabs attention of people and makes them click on your ad.

The headline must be catchy and have some main keywords in it.
The description of your ad must be a no brainer, something incredible.

MASSIVE TRAFFIC

You can even create two campaigns in AdWords. I always do that to see the relevance of each campaign.

I run my first campaign under CONTENT NETWORK and the second one under SEARCH NETWORK.

Google's Content Network is a Goldmine for such CPA offers. You can receive many cheap clicks and increase your cpa leads conversions. Your ad will show on sites that are relevant to your ads.

You can receive thus a highly qualified traffic on some of the hottest sites for your event and paying no more than a few cents per click.

Final Words

All methods described in this guide are all working and you have a very good opportunity to use them to rake in more and more cpa cash. Just be creative and always search for hot events: reality TV shows, celebrity deaths, sport events (Football World Championship) etc. The list here is endless.

Just imagine you were the first to put the video of Tom Cruise and Kathy Holmes Wedding

So you can start right now driving traffic to your CPA hot offers. Remember that not every campaign will be a success, you have to test your campaigns first and of course only then you can see which campaign brings you more traffic.

I hope you enjoyed reading my ebook and now can get to work!
Believe me if you start using my methods you can generate good commissions very quickly.

Just think how many people are looking for HOT OFFERS and you can realize the potential of CPA market.

I have included here different methods of driving traffic to your CPA offers and I am sure you are able to make good money, but remember all this requires a bit of action.

Try to find a good niche first and then a good CPA offer related to that niche and then ATTACK interested people, but do not make it aggressive.

Requirements:

- A PayPal account with some money in it. (Doesn't matter if it's Verified)
- E-Bay Account (logic)

Now, let's start!

We're going to be aiming at sellers that own a company, because the method works better on this.

So, what the method does involve?

Only 3 steps!

Step One: You buy the item with your money, normally.

Step Two: After a long time (1-2 weeks this depends of the distance), you contact the seller, and you tell him that you didn't receive the package.

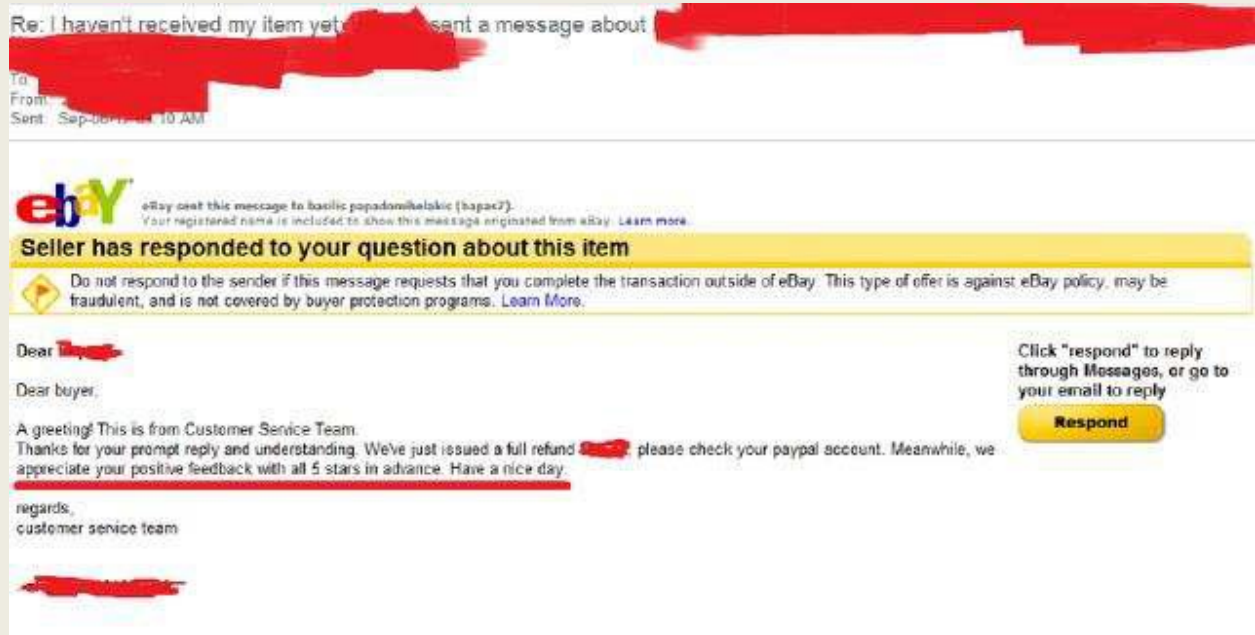

Step Three: Money is back! The seller gave you the refund!

This seems simple, isn't it? You're right! I'll tell you with more details now.

But, you're going to tell me, if he don't want to refund you ? This is why we're aiming companies!

They don't care about 1 or 2 purchase; they care about the feedback and their reputation. So, for it, they will refund you and you going to tell your friends that the company is great, and on eBay you're going to rate it 5 stars etc. This is what they care about, and what they want.

Picture of my last refund:

Now, I'll tell you with all the details that I can give you.

First, find what you want to buy on eBay, you must have the money on your PayPal account already, now let's buy it (Don't forget to choose a big company !)

Secondly, wait, the time is what that pay here, and it's important, the more you're waiting, the more you will get the chance to get your money back! (Don't wait more than 5 weeks...)

Now, you have your item, but not your money, and it's been a long time now (around 3 weeks that you're waiting), let's contact the companies!

Tell them that you didn't receive the package, like this:

« Hey,

I've bought a <your item here> from you, and I didn't receive it, I think this is not your fault, you seems like a great company to me, I've already tell some friends that I've bought a <your item name here again> from you, I didn't tell them that I haven't receive it, I don't want to make negative feedbacks, so, I'm here to tell you that I haven't receive it and if you can tell me how we're going to deal with that. It's been around 3 weeks that I'm waiting now, first of, I've think of a long trajet and now I'm becoming impatient.

Regards,

<Your name here> »

For my message, this was this:

« Hey ya, wassup? I can't wait to feedback you positively, but if haven't earn my item yet... Was there maybe any problem on the transportation? I couldn't wait for it...! I ordered something at the same day, and the other item came the previews week...! If something is wrong, please inform me as soon as possible...! If not, inform me about what you think it is..!

Regards,

<My name> »

And that's what they answered me back:

« Dear buyer,

We've just checked your order and found it has been dispatched to you on 26th, July, with the tracking number RA646989199CN by China post airmail. Customer service team »

So, you have to wait 1 more week, and after the week, you will contact them again and you're going to tell them that you didn't receive it yet. Try to get the item's tracking number! After you get it, take your package. (You could also take it earlier too) Their answer will probably be like this:

« Dear buyer,

A greeting! This is from Customer Service Team. Many thanks for your understanding and support. If you still cannot get it, just tell us, we'll dispatch or we will give you a full refund. Have a nice day.

Regards,

Customer service team »

And tell them that you want a refund (or a redispach if you want another one item, and redo the method, you're going to have to use your Social-Engineering skills). For my part, I told them that I couldn't wait more weeks, so I asked for a full refund.
