METHOD AND DETAILS

I have tried my best to make it more simple and easy for newbies.

I wanted to make cash like you! I tried many different methods non really worked for me. One day I was browsing Instagram and saw large Instagram pages that were about for things like quotes, beauty tips, health, funny videos etc all varieties of niche accounts that had nice pictures and videos. After few minutes of following them. I began to take a detailed look explore them and was stunned to see almost all of them had anywhere from 100k - 2 Million followers. I saw something that they all were doing one thing known as a shout out that is wherever they tell their followers to visit and follow this cool new account they found and that i realised quickly that this was just like solo ads from email list building. Then they started doing what's known as a shout out for shout out that is wherever two accounts every promote the opposite persons account to their huge following that is analogous to adswaps once more from the e-mail list building technique.

When I took a glance at their bios all of them had one thing that in common - For Business/Promos contact here: and that they would list their Email address and/or Kik username. therefore it seems once I contacted them to seek out the way to get a shout out that they were charging for them and taking payments by Paypal. therefore a shout out was one thing you got and a shout out for shout out was a free exchange between a pair of accounts. I began to follow all the massive accounts I find out that these accounts grow from nothing to many thousands of followers in no time. After they reach around 100k they were putting in their bios:

For Business/Promos contact here: and that they would list their Email address and/or Kik username.

I decided to try this myself. I made new account and added few funny pictures on it. I had no money to buy shout outs so I downloaded app called "Crowd fire". This app is help us to copy followers from other accounts or to find out your unfollowers. This app can be found in Playstore and also in App store. If you don't have smartphone you can download Bluestacks from HERE. This is android emulator. Just download and install it and go to Playstore and download Crowd fire. So I started copying followers from those big accounts and started making atleast 2-3 posts a day. Within 1 week I was able to get around 3k followers 300-400 hundred likes per photo.

Quick tip: After few days make sure to unfollow all those who don't follow you back.

You don't have to make posts yourself. You can just save from other accounts. There is app called "InstaSave for Instagram". This app is available for both Andriod and Iphone. Just download and re-upload on your page. If you don't have time to make posts yourself. After 1 month I had 8k followers and I was getting 1000-1400 likes per post. I decided to add For Business/Promos contact here: and added my Email address and Kik username. I started getting people interested in buying Shout outs from me. I made deal with 2-3 people and earned my first $50 ever. I decided to spend them on getting shout outs from big accounts. I received hundreds of new followers and I saw increase in likes per post. I started receiving 4-5 customers everyday. I increased up my rates and right now I'm making easily atleast $100 a day. All you just need to do is find best niche that will suite you here are few you can choose from:

- 1- Body building
- 2- Beauty tips

- 3- Quotes
- 4- Funny memes
- 5- Funny videos
- 6- Tips and tricks
- 7- Facts
- 8- Interesting stories
- 9- History
- 10- Celebrity
- Etc..

Quick tip: If you have some money I will suggest you to invest in getting shout outs from big pages (You will earn them back).

These accounts are like advertising platforms with their large followings. they're just like the Instagram Ads of Instagram before Instagram has even extended their inevitable advertising platform. I additionally assume that Instagram may be a prime candidate for a partner program just like the YouTube Partner program wherever folks that post standard videos and find a lot of views share within the advertising revenue with YouTube. If Instagram ever implements a partner program they're going to have it off with these massive accounts thus having an oversized account will place you in prime position to profit huge if they ever implement a partner program.

You can also promote your stuff with Hashtags for free. simply post your pic and you'll add up to thirty hashtags per pic. A hashtag may be a keyword with the pound register front of it for example: #fitnesstips, #wqquotes, #bodybuilding, #selfies etc. mistreatment hashtags categorizes your pictures below those hashtags thus once people search through those hashtag they'll see your pictures or videos so if they click the picture or video they'll see and therefore the comments below it. thus you'll promotion for free. Just follow all above steps and you will able to earn like me:
